Father Pat's Page

Here we go into 2017!

Looking forward to next Saturday night: BBQ Pulled Pork dinner... Almost free! By that I mean we expect that you will bring a side dish to help complement the meal. Drop off your side dish in the Parish Hall before Mass if you can. The food will be delicious and it's a great time of the year to have a get together. We'll be starting the New Year off just right.

*

In case you forgot or didn't know: The Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee no longer has a Bishop. Our former Bishop is now the Bishop of the Diocese of St. Petersburg in Florida. We wish Bishop Parkes well and we send our prayers his way.

*

RCIA returns this week: Tuesday night at 6:30pm. In our regular spot, first floor of the Education Building. Looking forward to having our group return. Everyone is welcome.

*

Monday Night Bible Class resumes this week as well. 7:00pm til 8:30pm. Hope you can join us in the Parish Hall.

*

Help Needed, really:

1. As most of you know the first Sunday of the month, after each Mass, is Donut Sunday. We have great volunteers who are committed to set up and serve each month ... what we NEED is someone to volunteer ONCE a YEAR to go to Krispy Kreme on Sunday morning to pick up the donuts. Call Jackie in the parish office for more information.
2. We are in need of volunteers to Usher on Saturday afternoons at the 5:00pm Mass and we need ushers for the Sunday 10:30am Mass. People moving, some not well - brings on our need. If you can volunteer to help, either speak to one of the Ushers at Mass or call the Parish Office. A huge thank you for considering this ministry for yourself ... even if it's for once a month.

*

Our new parish Cookbooks are back on Sale! Come by the Office or look for someone with the books in the Hall after Mass. The funds raised are going to help our Youth to head to Atlanta this summer for a regional Catholic Youth Conference.

*

A huge THANK YOU to everyone involved in our parish celebration of Christmas last month. Liturgical ministers. Music. Decorators. From A - Z it all went so well. Thanks for your commitment to Nativity.
